

Rights of Persons Affected

As a person affected by the processing of personal data, you have the following rights:

- Pursuant to Art. 15 GDPR, you can request information about your personal data processed by us. In particular, you can request information about the purposes of processing, the categories of personal data processed, the recipients or categories of recipients to whom we have disclosed or will disclose your personal data, the intended storage period or the criteria for determining the storage period, the existence of a right to rectification or erasure of your personal data as well as to restriction of processing or to object to processing, the existence of a right to complain to a supervisory authority, the origin of your data if we have not collected it from you, the existence of automated decision-making, including profiling, as well as the right to be informed about the appropriate safeguards pursuant to Article 46 of the GDPR in the context of the transfer of personal data to third countries.
- Pursuant to Art. 16 GDPR, you can request the immediate correction of incorrect personal data or the completion of your personal data stored by us.
- Pursuant to Art. 17 GDPR, you may request the immediate deletion of your personal data stored by us, unless the processing is necessary for the exercise of the right to freedom of expression and information, for compliance with a legal obligation, for reasons of public interest, or for the establishment, exercise or defense of legal claims.
- Pursuant to Art. 18 GDPR, you may request the restriction of the processing of your personal data to the extent that
 - you dispute the accuracy of the data and we still need time to verify the accuracy of the personal data,
 - the processing is unlawful, but you refuse to delete it,
 - we no longer need the data for the purposes of processing, but you need them for the assertion, exercise or defense of legal claims, or
 - you have objected to the processing as long as it has not yet been determined whether our legitimate grounds prevail.
- Pursuant to Art. 21 GDPR, you may object to processing for reasons relating to your particular situation, insofar as the processing is carried out for the purposes of the protection of legitimate interests pursuant to Art. 6 (1) Subpar. 1 f GDPR. We will then no longer process your personal data unless we can prove compelling legitimate grounds for the processing which override your interests, rights and freedoms, or the processing serves to assert, exercise or defend legal claims. In addition, you may object to the processing of your personal data for the purposes of advertising and profiling, insofar as it is related to direct marketing, at any time.
- Pursuant to Art. 7 (3) GDPR, you have the right to revoke any data protection consent you may have given us at any time with effect for the future. However, this does not affect the lawfulness of the processing that took place on the basis of your consent up to the time of the revocation. A request for deletion is equivalent to the aforementioned revocation. Pursuant to Art. 20 GDPR, you may receive your personal data that you have provided to us in a structured, common and machine-readable format, or you may request the transfer to another controller, if the processing is based on consent or on a contract and is carried out with the help of automated processes.
- Pursuant to Art. 77 GDPR, you may complain to a data protection supervisory authority. As a rule, you can contact the supervisory authority of your usual place of residence or workplace. In Baden-Wuerttemberg, this is the State Commissioner for Data Protection and Freedom of Information Dr. Stefan Brink, Lautenschlagerstrasse 20, 70173 Stuttgart, Germany.
